STATION: SSU/Munich, AB-43 REPORT NO.: 187
REFERENCE: Report No. 185, 186 REPORT DATE: 24 June 1946
SOURCE: SLOTH INFO DATE: 19 June 1946
SUB SOURCE: DATE INFO RECEIVED: 19-6-46
EVALUATION:
SUBJECT: LARIONOFF

1. LARIONOFF arrived in Munich on 17 June 1946 as he had promised. He spent the last two days visiting his friends and writing his reports. He seems to have a great deal of energy and enthusiasm for his work.

2. His daughter (who is now a secretary for the Surete of Wangen) has applied for French citizenship and plans to move to Paris.

3. On 18 June 1946 LARIONOFF met his friend Victor BAIDALAKOV of the NTSNP, who is now on an "inspection tour of the NTSNP cells." BAIDALAKOV's NTSNP chief for southern Germany, Engineer MAMUKOV, is sick and is not expected to live. BAIDALAKOV has appointed Vassili ALEXEEV as MAMUKOV's successor (see Reports No. 56, para 1 and 5; 57, para 2g; 58 para 1; 117.).

4. LARIONOFF, who at one time supported the NTSNP, stated that BAIDALAKOV made a very bad impression on him: he brags, says that "masses" as such have no meaning to him, thinks himself leader of the Russian emigration in Germany, and boasts that he has strong contacts not only with the Americans but also with the British. BAIDALAKOV told LARIONOFF that he was "trying to convince the Americans that war with the USSR is not a necessity, because the Soviet Union can be defeated without war, by means of an anti-Soviet revolution in the USSR." BAIDALAKOV believes that his party, the NTSNP, will play a decisive role in any American-Soviet action.

5. LARIONOFF also learned that Col. SAKHAROFF (Report No. 182, para 3) has again visited Munich. While there, he had a long conversation with an ROA colonel. He left Munich for the French Zone 18 June 1946. BAIDALAKOV wanted to speak to SAKHAROFF and to Col. KROMIARI, but both declined to see him.

6. LARIONOFF told SLOTH that TCHEREMISSINOFF (Report No. 165) is still in Heidelberg, where he is trying to arrange the release of 60 ROA members. He is prepared to offer these persons jobs with the construction business which he is now organizing in Munich.
